Department of Revenue

The Department of Revenue is the state agency charged with the responsibility of statewide administration of the property tax system.

The Department's broad authority over county officials in general and local boards of equalization includes:

- Acting as the oversight agency. (RCW's 84.08.010, 84.08.060)
- Administration of state property tax system. (RCW's 84.08.010, 84.08.060)
- Providing education and guidance. (RCW's 84.48.042, 84.48.046)

BOE Review Process

The Auditor will:

- Request a list of petitions from the board clerk.
- Choose the petition files for review.
- Request form letters, custom forms, hearing notices, and the certification from the assessor to the board.
- Conduct a phone or online interview with the clerk.
- Review the information gathered and draft a review report.
- Send a draft copy of the report to the board.
- The board will have two weeks to ask questions or provide input.
- Issue the final review report.
- Post the final report to the Department's website and the Property Tax Resource Center website.
- Complete a follow-up review in the year following the review, if there were any requirements or recommendations.
